

Explore your independence. Think about some things you can do by yourself. How does it make you feel to be able to do something on your own?

Make a list and dance/act out those things to your favorite song and be sure to express your excitement about your independence through movement. See examples below:

comb your hair
brush your teeth
clean your room
do your laundry
fix your breakfast
call a friend
walk the dog

